

Property Manager

Limited property portal access for Diana, Alana, Allen, and future apartment staff.

Property Portal

Property Managers can submit and review queue items for their assigned property and see property-level reports. They should not see company financials, other clients, other properties, invoices, admin settings, or internal business tools.

What This Role Can Access • Dashboard, Queue, Schedule, and Reports for the assigned property.	Important Guardrails • Property Manager access should only show the assigned property. • Do not use staff who n
---	--

em.	2. Enter the property and paste unit numbers separated by commas or on separate lines.	3. Fill in shared dates, paint type, flooring, priority, remediation, notes, and renovation information.	4. Submit t per unit.
-----	--	--	-----------------------

Renovation Tracking

was already renovated, choose Yes for ion and enter details such as Previous eno.	2. If the unit now needs renovation, choose Yes for renovation needed and enter what work is needed.	3. Trimax keeps this information with the so future reports can show which units v previously renovated and which units sti renovation.
---	--	---

Status

e to see whether a unit is pending scheduled, completed, or needs attention.	2. Use Schedule to review upcoming work dates.	3. Use Reports to review property history, schedule risk, remediation, and renovation information.
--	--	--

Workspace reminder: Trimax supports more than one business. Always confirm you are working in the correct workspace before creating queue items, estimates, invoices, services, payments, or reports.